Haws® Welcomes Multiple New Team Members

[Sparks, Nevada USA] – Haws Corporation® is pleased to announce several additional team members within multiple company departments. These additions are in support of Haws' continued success in the emergency equipment and hydration industries.

New Team Members Include:

Claude Sapp – Vice President of Finance

With an MBA in Finance from the University of Tampa, Claude brings over 25 years of corporate finance, information technology & private equity knowledge and experience to his new position at Haws. As the VP of Finance, Claude will provide leadership, direction and strategy within the Finance and IT departments for company reporting, planning and analysis as well as supporting mergers and acquisitions strategy and development.

Pardip Bhogal – Director of Haws Integrated™

Bhogal holds a Mechanical Engineer degree from Staffordshire University and joins Haws with more than 27 years in the global oil & gas, petrochemical and power industries. In addition to managing the business unit, Bhogal's principle duties as the new Director of Haws Integrated include enhancing the sales and operational activities to amplify market penetration and growth of Haws Integrated.

Lex Klees – Regional Sales Manager- Western U.S.

Bringing over 16 years of sales manager experience in the commercial construction industry, Klees possesses widespread experience working with an expansive network of distributors, architects and contractors. In his new role as Regional Sales Manager for the Western US Region, Klees is responsible for overseeing and enhancing relationships with Haws representatives and key accounts in his region.
